FINDING ANOTHER SERVICE

Headspace

Headspace is focused on providing mental health support to 12-25 year olds. With 100+ national headspace centres, online services and clinical programs across Australia this is an excellent resource.

Visit the website: headspace.org.au

Greenbook

Green Book acts as a search engine for service providers. All you need to do is enter a service type, suburb or region into the search engine and Green Book will do the rest.

Visit the website: www.greenbook.org.au

Professional Referral

Mental health services usually require a referral from a General Practitioner, private psychiatrist or public mental health service.

Most Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) policies will cover your GP appointment. Please read your policy document for full details, terms and conditions. For more information, please refer to the OSHC section of this document.

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

International students who have elected for WAIFS to arrange their OSHC will be covered with Allianz.

If you have OSHC with Allianz then you can contact their helpline.

Counselling

Counselling is a great way for someone who is facing issues, to see a trained professional and discuss them in a safe and supportive environment.

Anyone concerned about themselves or someone else can go to counselling. Support Services relating to alcohol and drugs will accept referrals, however you will need to make an appointment. Mental health services usually require a referral from a General Practitioner, private psychiatrist or public mental health service. We recommend you check with the service you're interested in to make sure.

See below for a list of support services (Helplines are also a great tool to access if wanting quick and immediate support).

Sobering Up Centres

These centres provide a safe environment in which people, who are found intoxicated in public, may sober up. A person being cared for in a Sobering Up Centre can expect:

- Access to bathroom facilities, a shower, bed, clean clothes, and a simple nutritious meal;
- Non-discriminatory and non-judgemental care;
- Referral to other agencies and services if required.

People may refer themselves to a centre or be brought in by the police, a local patrol, health/welfare agencies, or by other means. Attendance at a centre is voluntary. Please see below for a list of Sobering Up Centres:
