The National Code 2007 requires that, pre enrolment, a student is provided (in print or through referral to an electronic copy) with information of the following:

- a. the requirements for acceptance into a course, including the minimum level of English language proficiency, educational qualifications or work experience required and whether course credit may be applicable - see 1.4 and 9.
- b. the course content and duration, qualification offered if applicable, modes of study and assessment methods – see detailed course information at www.waifs.wa.edu.au ;
- c. campus locations and a general description of facilities, equipment, and learning and library resources available to students – see point 7;
- d. details of any arrangements with another registered provider, person or business to provide the course or part of the course - see detailed course information at www.waifs.wa.edu.au;
- e. indicative course-related fees including advice on the potential for fees to change during the student's course and applicable refund policies – see points 2.3 and 4;
- f. information about the grounds on which the student's enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled – see point 6;
- g. a description of the ESOS framework made available electronically by DEEWR – see point 1.7; and
- h. relevant information on living in Australia, including:
 - i. indicative costs of living – see point 1.8;
 - ii. accommodation options – see point 1.9; and
 - iii. where relevant, schooling obligations and options for school-aged dependants of intending students, including that school fees may be incurred – see point 3.5.

The following information and conditions of enrolment at WAIFS are provided to applicants for information purposes only. This information does not form a binding agreement between the student and West Australian Institute of Further Studies (WAIFS). Successful applicants will receive a Letter of Offer and Acceptance of Offer form. Returning the signed Acceptance of Offer Form and paying the initial fee creates a binding Agreement between WAIFS and the student named in WAIFS' Letter of Offer.

This information and information contained in the Letter of Offer and the Acceptance of Offer Form may be subject to variation as necessary to comply with any Australian Commonwealth or State law, regulation or amendment thereof.

1. General

1.1. The availability of a complaints and appeals process, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws. Current - or intending - overseas students may access appeals advice and dispute resolution services in relation to a decision made by their private education or training provider at no cost through the Overseas Students Ombudsman. See the Overseas Students Ombudsman website www.oso.gov.au or phone 1300 362 072 for more information.

1.2. WAIFS's responsibilities to the student pertain only to the WAIFS course/s outlined in the Letter of Offer.

1.3. All conditions and any other special requirements contained in a Letter of Offer must be met and/or agreed to prior to WAIFS issuing an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE).

1.4. Students must meet the minimum Academic and English language proficiency requirements for entry into the course(s) of their choice. See <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>

1.5. Attendance at orientation is compulsory; therefore International Students must ensure the relevant visa is issued in time to attend orientation.

1.6. Students are expected to attend all classes and work-based training placements (if applicable) and to undertake all assessments, projects, tests and examinations on the dates and times specified by their trainers. Students must abide by all WAIFS' policies that are in force at the time of their enrolment.

1.7. ESOS Framework - International students are protected by the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) legislative framework at: <https://internationaleducation.gov.au>

1.8 Cost of Living in Australia - International students are required to demonstrate and/or declare that they have genuine access to sufficient funds to be granted a Student visa. Applicants may have to demonstrate sufficient funds to cover these expenses for the first year (or more at the discretion of DIABP case officers) in Australia, according to Immigration's risk framework.
See: <http://www.border.gov.au>

See also WAIFS website: <http://studynaustralia.gov.au/Sia/en/StudyCosts/LivingCosts>

1.9 Accommodation - Information on the various accommodation options available to international students are available at: <http://www.studynaustralia.gov.au/global/live-in-australia/accommodation> and on WAIFS website www.waifs.wa.edu.au.

2. Fees

2.1. Tuition fees, charges and accounts are payable in advance of each semester. A cumulative weekly late fee of $100 per week applies to all tuition fees not received in WAIFS bank account by the due date as stated on the invoice issued to the student.

2.2. The total tuition fees stated in an Offer Letter are indicative only and may change if your commencement date is after 1 July. WAIFS reserve the right to increase tuition fees and charges from time-to-time without notice. This is usually done annually on 1 July and usually by no more than 4%.

2.3 For more information on fees refer to <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>

3. Visa Conditions

3.1. Student visas are normally issued for the period of the course or courses being offered.

3.2. International students are responsible for meeting all visa conditions as specified by the Australian Government. For more information, see: <http://www.border.gov.au>

3.3. WAIFS is required by law to report to the Australian Government international students who are found to be in breach of their visa conditions. Reported students may be instructed by the Government to leave the country. It is important that students understand the occasions when this may occur and all applicants should read the Waifs policy on suspension/cancellation/deferral at <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>.

3.4. All students on student visas must inform WAIFS of their current address throughout their studies. This is a student visa requirement. All changes of address must be notified to WAIFS in writing within seven (7) days of the change.

3.5. School aged dependants accompanying students to Australia will be required to enrol at school and pay full fees if they are enrolled in either a Government or non-Government school. Further information and indicative costs may be found at: <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/schooling-for-dependents/>

4. Refunds and Cancellation of Enrolment

4.1. Notification of cancellation or withdrawal from a course of study must be made in writing to WAIFS. For full details refer to the WAIFS' Refund Policy for international students at <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>

4.2. A student whose withdrawal or enrolment cancellation is due to exceptional compassionate or compelling circumstances can request that cancellation charges be waived. Requests should outline the reasons for the withdrawal and include documentary evidence such as medical certificates to support the request. Requests must be made in writing within twelve months of the date of the withdrawal request or the conclusion of the semester in which the course was undertaken.

5. Tuition Protection Service

5.1. WAIFS meets its obligations under the Tuition Protection Service (TPS). TPS is a placement and refund service for international students and provides for the continuation of a student's study at an alternative educational institution in the event that WAIFS ceases to provide a course of study in which a student is enrolled. For full details of WAIFS' Statement of Tuition Protection Service please refer to <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>

6. Deferral, suspension or cancellation of enrolment

WAIFS can only defer or temporarily suspend the enrolment of a student on the grounds of:

- (i) compassionate or compelling circumstances or;
- (ii) misbehaviour by the student

Students may apply to WAIFS for deferment or suspension of their studies if they have good reason for doing so (compassionate or compelling circumstances). Students should note that deferring, suspending or cancelling an enrolment may affect their student visa and students should refer to the DIABP website www.border.gov.au or call 131 881 for advice on how any change to enrolment status may impact on their visa. Further information can be found at: <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>

7. Location and Facilities

7.1. WAIFS is physically located at Level 1, 160 Central Arcade, 811 Hay Street, Perth WA 6000. PO Box Z5525 St Georges Terrace WA 6831. Information about Perth (the capital city of Western Australia) can be found at <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/where-is-waifs/>

7.2. WAIFS facilities for use by its enrolled students include the following:

- (i) Fully equipped classrooms;
- (ii) Access to Lecture materials and notes;
- (iii) Laptop computers are available for students' use with printers and internet access;
- (iv) A large student recreation area with wireless internet access;
- (v) On-call Counsellor;
- (vi) Student support services, including English and numeracy support and referral (at no cost) to external specialist services such as legal services.

7.3 Further information on WAIFS, its location and facilities can be found at <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/student-services/>.

8. Circumstances in which personal information about students may be shared

Information is collected on this form and during your enrolment in order to meet our obligations under the ESOS Act and the National Code 2007 to ensure student compliance with the conditions of their visas and their obligations under Australian immigration laws generally. The authority to collect this information is contained in the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, the Education Services for Overseas Students Regulations 2001 and the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2007. Information collected about you on this form and during your enrolment (including personal information and contact details, course enrolment details and changes and the circumstances of any suspected breach by a student of a student visa condition) can be provided, in certain circumstances, to the Australian Government and designated authorities and, if relevant, the Tuition Protection Service Secretary. In other instances information collected on this form or during your enrolment can be disclosed without your consent where authorised or required by law.
For further information see: <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>

9. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfer

Credit Transfer and RPL enable students to complete some courses faster. Credit transfer is usually based on successful completion of equivalent models or units at another institution. Applications for credit transfer should include certified copies of Certificates/ Statements of Attainment, details of unit syllabus and certified copies of the academic transcript. WAIFS also recognises the skills and knowledge students may have gained from life experiences, work experience and any training provided at work which is relevant to their course.
Further information is available at <http://waifs.wa.edu.au/policies-procedures/>
