CODE OF CONDUCT

The Code outlines a number of standards for agents to follow in an effort to maintain high professional standards in the marketing and delivery of education services and which safeguard the interests and welfare of students. There are two main areas of the Code of Conduct are:

- (i) Institute Responsibilities
- (ii) Agent Responsibilities

(i) INSTITUTE RESPONSIBILITIES

The West Australian Institute of Further Studies fosters and maintains a learning environment that is conducive to the success of all students.

The West Australian Institute of Further Studies undertakes to market all education and training products with absolute integrity, accuracy and professionalism.

In the provision of information, The West Australian Institute of Further Studies will make no false or misleading comparisons with any other provider or course.

The West Australian Institute of Further Studies will provide accurate, relevant and up to date marketing information to agents and students prior to making an application and enrolling in the Institute.

(ii) AGENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1) The Education Agent is aware of their responsibilities as defined in the National Code 2018 and in particular that in representing the Institute the Education Agent acts as a servant of the institute, and further, the Education Agent undertakes to ensure that they and any of their staff are fully informed of any changes to the National Code as they may occur from time to time.
- 2) The Education Agent undertakes to ensure that the recruitment of students is conducted at all times in an ethical and responsible manner and consistent with the requirements of the relevant course or curriculum as detailed in materials published by the West Australian Institute of Further Studies.
- 3) The Education Agent agrees to ensure that all student selection decisions comply with equal opportunity legislation.
- 4) The Education Agent agrees to employ appropriately qualified staff, or to train all staff, who will assess the extent to which the applicant meets the pre-requisites of the course for which they are applying based on the applicant's qualifications and proficiencies.
- 5) The Education Agent undertakes to follow the application and enrolment procedures as published by the West Australian Institute of Further Studies and to make available all original applicant documentation to the Institute upon request.
- 6) The Education Agent agrees to ensure that all applicant information collected as part of the application and enrolment process is securely kept and that the handling and divulging of all applicant information complies with Australian Privacy Legislation.
- 7) In representing the West Australian Institute of Further Studies (WAIFS), the Education Agent, agrees to abide by Items 1) to 7) of the Agent Responsibilities as contained within the Education Agent Code of Conduct.
